

2024 Seattle Boat Show Cancellation Fees

In the months leading up to the show, spending on show related expenses increases. To help ensure the financial health of the show, the association, and our member businesses, the NMTA Board of Trustees has approved the following cancellation policy:

Cancellation fees for an exhibitor withdrawal from the show

On or before Nov. 1 – NMTA retains the $295 application fee

In Nov – NMTA retains 15% of requested or invoiced space (or $300, whichever is greater), plus $295 application fee

In Dec – NMTA retains 50% of invoiced exhibitor fees, plus $295 application fee

In Jan – NMTA retains 100% of invoiced exhibitor fees, including $295 application fee

In Feb – NMTA retains 100% of invoiced exhibitor fees, including $295 application fee

Pandemic Response Authorization

(pg. 5, section 19 of 2024 Seattle Boat Show Contract)

From November 1, 2023 and forward, if modification or cancellation by the NMTA of the Seattle Boat Show is caused or otherwise required by the continuing pandemic, NMTA, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, may take or avoid all actions as it deems necessary under the circumstances, without any claim, suit or penalty against NMTA allowed under this agreement. (For example, and not by way of limitation, the NMTA may retain and collect all or a portion of Exhibitor's deposit and final payment under the contract, in order to support NMTA's commitments made in connection with the 2024 Seattle Boat Show, but NMTA may not collect or retain more than the total amount of Exhibitor's application cost and lease commitment made under this contract).

Please contact me at your earliest convenience if you have any questions about the cancellation policy or other concerns regarding your company's participation in the 2024 Seattle Boat Show. katiemc@nmta.net